

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics
www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Who done it

Who done it who was it broke your heart
Who done it who keeps us apart
You gamble with the love I gave untill another won it
So when you find you all alone just ask yourself who done it

There was a time when you were nine and I belonged to you
You broke your vow so listen now while I give you a clue
I gave my heart to someone new because you tried to shun it
You want it back but its to late and your the one who done it

* Refrain

I offered you a bungalow with roses round the door
A diamond ring and everything but still you wanted more
You wanted to run your own life so I just let you run it
And when your dream train jumped the track I guess you know who done it

* Refrain