Last Night-lyrics

Little Walter, Paul Butterfield

Last night I lost the best friend I ever had
Well, she gone off and left me, oh, make me feel so bad

Well, it's early in the morning when my love come falling down for you Well, it's early in the morning, baby,
when my love come falling down for you I want you to tell me, baby, tell me what are we gonna do

Well, I'll wait till tomorrow,
they tell me every day brings some bottle of change
Well, I'll wait till tomorrow,
they tell me every day brings some bottle of change
Well, I love you, love you baby, honey, ain't it a crying shame

Last night I lost the best friend I ever had
Last night I lost the best friend I ever had Well, she gone off and left me, oh, make me feel so bad
