Music resources from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk
For personal educational purposes only

Sing Away the Shadows
Eliza Hewitt, 1902.
Charles Gabriel.

Sing away the shadows,
Flitting o'er the sky;
Sing of starry comforts,
In the by and by!
Sing of love unfailing,
Mercies ever new;
Pardon, peace and blessing,
Guidance kind and true.

Refrain

Sing away, sing away,
Hopeful be the lay;
Sing away the shadows,
Flitting o'er the sky;
Sing away, sing away,
Trusting ev'ry day;
Sing of starry comforts
In the by and by.

Sing away the shadows,
Anxious doubt and fear;
Sing the Savior's promise,
Bringing sweetest cheer:
Trust the heav'nly Father,
He for you will care
More than for the sparrows,
Or the lilies fair.

Refrain

Sing away the shadows,
Selfish they may be;
Love's own happy music
Brings the light so free,
Lift another's burden,
Soothe another's woe,
Sharing with your neighbor,
Joy's returning glow.

Refrain

For personal educational purposes only
Music resources from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk