Sabbath Song-Psalm 92

1.How good it is to thank Him and to God's name sing praise. Proclaim His love each morning, His faithfulness by night. Sing to the music of the lute, play solemnly the lyre. Rejoice we in His presence, before our God and King.

2.The Most High God we praise Him; we thank Him for His deeds. Though others may reject Him, His ways they never see. For wickedness springs up as grass and flourishes awhile. Yet all shall be uprooted, while God is evermore high.

3.The righteous He will strengthen; they flourish in His care. They in His house are planted and in His courts are known. So shall they bear abundantly, their fruit matures with age. He is our Rock and Anchor, our good and righteous Lord.
