Thou, Lord, Art a Shield for Me
By:Rev. Charles Wesley (1707-1788)
From: Psalms and Hymns, 1743, Psalm 3
Tune:Magdalen College
Comp:J. Varley Roberts, 1904

1)Thou, Lord, art a shield for me,
Succor still I find in Thee;
Now Thou liftest up my head,
Now I glory in Thine aid,
Confident in Thy defence,
Strong in Thine omnipotence.

2)To the Lord I cried; the cry
Brought my helper from the sky;
By my kind protector kept,
Safe I laid me down and slept,
Slept within His arms, and rose;
Blessed Him for the sweet repose.

3)Thine it is, O Lord, to save;
Strength in Thee Thy people have;
Safe from sin in Thee they rest,
With the gospel blessing blest,
Wait to see the perfect grace,
Heaven on earth in Jesu's face. Amen.
