GOODBYE JOSH
Peter Yarrow
(c) 1972

Goodbye Josh
Goodbye old friend
You're strings are quiet
The music ends
What was it you said in a farewell to me
You said a live it hard then let it be

Goodbye to Woody
And to Cisco too
Goodbye Leaden Belly
And Josh here's to you
You fill the morning with sunshine and light
The songs are memories; a part of my life

Oh, time to listen
Time to share
Time to remember
Time to care
After the thunder comes the rain
And in the morning it starts all over again.

Goodbye Josh
Goodbye old friend
You're songs are ended
The music ends.
What was it you said in a farewell to me
You said a live it hard then let it be

Time to remember, Josh
Time to care
You know after the thunder comes the rain
And in the morning begins again
