^D ^G
And heres what the voice said to me

^G Go home, go home, go ^C home, go home,
^G ^D
And kneel by your bedside and pray
^G ^C
Go home, go home, go home, go home,
^G ^D ^G
God will answer your prayers today

I staggered across the room to the door
I almost fell on the floor
Im sure there was laughter but I could not here
For the words that still rang in my ears

Chorus

God sobered my mind and he saved my sole
And erased my thoughts from all fears
Then back to the tavern I reached of these words
The words that still rang in my ears

Chorus

The crowd started leaving with heads bowed so low
As the bartender picked up the keys
As he locked the door he murmured these words
The same words that god spoke to me

Chorus
