I Really Dont Want To Know
recorded by Eddy Arnold, Elvis Presley and Johnny Rodriguez, among others. It is a slow waltz.

I REALLY DON'T WANT TO KNOW

 A          D         A              A7                D
How many arms have held you, and hated to let you go
     D          Dm     A   F#m       A             E7      A
How many, how many I wonder, but I really don't want to know.
 A          D         A                A7                   D
How many lips have kissed you, and set your heart all aglow
     D          Dm     A   F#m       A             E7      A
How many, how many I wonder, but I really don't want to know.

(chorus)
    A      A7      D       A      A7      D
So always make me wonder, always make me guess
     B7         E        B7                E   E7
And even if I ask you, Darling don't confess.
      A         D         A              A7                  D
Just let it remain your secret, 'cause Darling I love you so
     D          Dm       A   F#m       A             E7      A
No wonder, no wonder I wonder, but I really don't want to know.

Johnny Rodriguez' version included a verse in Spanish. I can't remember it, but maybe someone will be kind enough to send it in for us. I think the title line was "Querida me, no quero saber". That makes a good intro, too.
