 C G/B
Well, she saved him from whiskey,
 F Em
was his constant companion.
 Am E7add5 C G
You'd see them out riding at dawn.

 C Em
She gave him his reasons
 F Em
to shoulder the seasons,
 Bb Am
but now when you see him
 D G
he's riding alone.

 C G/B
She lay down beside him
 F Em
to touch him and guide him,
 Am E7add5
turn 'round his head
 C G
on the darkest of days.

 C Em
He still sits beside her,
 F Em
remembers her smiling
 Bb Am
and whisper to him
 D G
that old song he would play.

 C G/B
Please lay down beside me,
 F Em
How I love you.
 F Am
Never wanted to bid this adieu.
 Am E7add5
No red river ever ran deeper D C
than an old cowboy love, D G C
than an old cowboy love that runs true.
