The Lonely Man
Tennessie Ernie Ford - The Lonely Man

The [B] World looks empty to a lonely man as he rides an endless [Es] trail
The [cm] sun sets gold the [F] stars unfold but the [cm] heart is cold [F] in a lonely [B] man

If he wants someone to [Es] talk with the [B] moon is every [Es] where
If [cm] he [F] wants someone to[B] walk with his [cm] shadows always [F] there

The [B] World looks hopeless to a lonely man as he drifts from place to [Es] place
The [cm] sky grows dim the [F] hills look grim while a[cm]cross the rim [F] rides a lonely [B] man

Wheres he [Es] goin`? Wheres he [B] goin`?
No-ones [cm] knowing [F] but the lonely [B] man
