```
C                                Dm
Are you tried of chasing pretty rainbows
G7                                   C
Are you tired of spinning round and round
                                     Dm
Wrap up all the shattered dreams of your life
    G7                             C     G7
And at the feet of Jesus lay them down

          C                  F                 Dm
Give them all give them all give them all to Jesus
                        G7                 C
Shattered dreams wounded hearts broken toys
                                F                 Dm
Give them all give them all give them all to Jesus
    G7                             C
And He will turn your sorrow into joy

                                  Dm
He never said you would only see sunshine
G7                               C
He never said there would be no rain
                                     Dm
He only promised us a heart full of singing
      G7                                 C    G7
That's the very thing that once brought pain

          C                  F               Dm
Give them all give them all give them all to Jesus
                         G7             C
Shattered dreams wounded hearts broken toys
                                F                 Dm
Give them all give them all give them all to Jesus
    G7                             C
And He will turn your sorrow into joy
