

Purple Robe-Stanley Brothers

^CTheres a story so unkind in the ^FHoly book we ^Cfind
^{G7}And it tells how Jesus stood alone one day
^CFalse accused and there condemned yet they ^Ffound no fault with ^CHim
^{G7}The man who wore the scarlet ^Cpurple robe

^FPurple robe my Savior wore oh the shame for me He ^Cbore
^{G7}As He stood alone forsaken on that day
^CAnd they placed upon His head ^Fpiercing thorns and blood stained ^Cred
^{G7}His raiment was a scarlet ^Cpurple robe

^FIn the common judgment hall he was ^Cmocked and scorned by all
^{G7}And a tear of sorrow fell upon His cheek
^CSoldiers of the wicked man ^Fsmote Him with their evil ^Chand
^{G7}The Man who wore the scarlet ^Cpurple robe

Repeat 2

^FWords of truth that day were plain from the lips of ^CPilot came ^{G7}In this man I find no reason He should die
^CBut the multitudes then cried let Him ^Fnow be crucified ^C
^{G7}The man who wore the scarlet ^Cpurple robe

Repeat 2

^FOh the River Of Jordan is many miles ^Caway
^{G7}And this mighty river I may never see
^CBut Ill find myself an alter in an old fashioned ^Fchurch ^C
^{G7}And my River Of Jordan that will be ^C
