

The Great Judgment Morning-Leander L. Pickett

G C
 I dreamed that the great judgment morning
 G D7
 Had dawned and the trumpet had blown
 G C
 I dreamed that all nations had gathered
 G D7 G
 To judgment before the white throne

C
 From the throne came a bright shining angel
 G D7
 And he stood on the land and the sea
 G C
 And swore with his hand raised to heaven
 G D7 G
 That time was no longer to be

C
 And oh what weeping and wailing
 G D7
 As the lost were told of their fate
 G C
 They cried for the rocks and the mountains
 G D7 G
 They prayed but their prayers were too late

C
 The rich man was there but his money
 G D7
 Had melted and vanished away
 G C
 A pauper stood there in the judgment
 G D7 G
 His debts were too many to pay

C
 The great man was there but his greatness
 G D7
 When death came was left far behind
 G C
 The angel that opened the records
 G D7 G
 No trace of his greatness could find

Repeat verse 3

C
 The widow was there and the orphan
 G D7
 God heard and remembered their cries
 G C
 No sorrow in heaven forever
 G D7 G
 God wiped all the tears from their eyes

C
 The gambler was there and the drunkard
 G D7
 And they who had sold them the drink
 G C
 With people who gave them the license
 G D7 G
 Together in hell they did sink

Repeat verse 3

C
 The mortal man to the judgment
 G D7
 But self righteousness would not do
 G C
 For the men who had crucified Jesus
 G D7 G
 Had passed off as mortal men too

C

And the souls that had put off salvation

G D7

Not tonight I'll get saved by and by

G C

No time now to think of religion

G D7 G

At last they had found time to die

Repeat verse 3
